Section 5-B.2. Accessory In-Law Suites: The Board of Appeals may grant a Special Permit for an "Accessory In-Law Suite" as a use accessory to an owner-occupied, single-family dwelling in all single-family residence districts, provided that the building and lot size provisions of this Section are met.

A. Accessory In-Law Suite Defined:

A separate dwelling unit located in a single-family dwelling, as an accessory and subordinate use to the residential use of the property; provided that such separate dwelling unit has been established pursuant to the provisions of this Section.

B. Ownership Requirements for Accessory In-Law Suites:

1. No Accessory In-Law Suite shall be held in separate ownership from the principal dwelling unit;
2. An Accessory In-Law Suite must be located within a single-family dwelling and the owner of the dwelling must occupy the principal dwelling unit;
3. The Accessory In-Law Suite shall only be occupied by individuals within the third degree of kinship of the owner of the principal dwelling unit;
4. The existing single-family home must have been constructed with a valid Building Permit as evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy for the original construction of the dwelling, or, where no such Certificate is available, other such evidence of lawful occupancy as determined by the Building Commissioner;
5. The property owner of any Accessory In-Law Suite shall record with the Norfolk County Registry of Deeds a certified copy of the Decision granting the Accessory In-Law Suite and certified copies shall be filed with the Department of Inspectional Services, where a master list of Accessory In-Law Suites shall be kept; and
6. When ownership of the property changes, the new owner shall notify the Building Commissioner so as to update the Accessory In-Law Suite List.

C. Requirements:

1. Minimum lot size shall be 15,000 square feet*;
2. The Accessory In-Law Suite shall be a minimum of 250 square feet and no larger than 1,000 square feet or 33 percent of the total building size in the dwelling, whichever is less*;
3. Any interior space, if used to calculate minimum building size, must meet requirements set forth in the State Building Code, 780 CMR for occupancy;
4. There shall be no more than 2 exterior landings which may be covered and shall not exceed 50 square feet in area, and are not within the required setbacks. Stairs shall not be located within a required setback;
5. Any proposed addition as part of this section must keep the outside appearance of a single-family house*;

6. All dimensional requirements shall comply with the applicable Sections of this Bylaw;
7. No more than one (1) Accessory In-Law Suite shall be allowed per lot;
8. No more than one (1) water meter shall be allowed for the dwelling*;
9. There shall be no lodgers in either the original dwelling unit or the Accessory In-Law Suite; and
10. Parking shall comply with the applicable Sections of this Bylaw*.

**Requirements marked with an asterisk may be altered as a condition(s) of the Special Permit*

D. Pre-Existing Units:

A pre-existing Accessory In-Law Suite in a single-family dwelling that was established with a Building Permit shall be considered a lawful use and shall not be required to meet the standards above provided the following criteria are fulfilled:

1. Proof of Existence: An owner-occupant seeking validation of an existing Accessory In-Law Suite as described herein shall have the burden of proof to demonstrate, by a preponderance of evidence, the existence of said dwelling unit. All probative documentary evidence must be submitted to the Building Commissioner. Records including, but are not limited to the following:
  - a. A valid Building Permit for the premises indicating the construction of the aforesaid second dwelling unit; and/or
  - b. Assessing Department records for the premises indicating the existence of the second dwelling unit; and/or
  - c. Permits from the Department of Inspectional Services, other than the actual building alteration permit which provided for construction of the accessory apartment, such as other Building Permits, plumbing, electrical and gas fitting permits, which explicitly indicate the existence of the second dwelling unit; and/or
  - d. A previous or current owner-occupant of the premises, providing a sworn, notarized attestation as to the existence of the Accessory In-Law Suite; and/or
  - e. Any other documentary evidence which, to the satisfaction of the Building Commissioner, is material and relevant and demonstrates the existence of the Accessory In-Law Suite before the date in which this Section takes effect.
2. Standard of Proof and Conflicting Evidence: If the documentary evidence available is conflicting, the Building Commissioner shall determine, after weighing all the evidence, if the existence of the Accessory In-Law Suite is supported by a preponderance of evidence.
3. Other Requirements: No pre-existing Accessory In-Law Suite shall be altered, extended or changed without first seeking and obtaining a Special Permit from the Zoning Board of Appeals under this Section and all rights given under a pre-existing condition will cease to exist at any change of ownership, unless a new Special Permit is granted based on the provisions of this Section.

- E. Invalidity Clause: The invalidity of any provision of this Section shall not invalidate all or any other provision of this Section.

ARTICLE 25: To see if the Town will vote to amend Zoning Bylaw, Section 14. Definitions, 2. Selected Words and Terms, by inserting the following terms:

ACCESSORY IN-LAW SUITE – A separate dwelling unit located in a single-family dwelling, as an accessory and subordinate use to the residential use of the property.

THIRD DEGREE OF KINSHIP – The level of relationship of two persons related by blood; includes parents, children, siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and great grandparents.

Or take any action relative thereto. (Petition of the Planning Board)
