Hello Lauren and Patrick.

This may seem trivial, but during last night's public comment segment regarding Omni's offered donation of $125k toward the development of a Quiet Zone at the Summer Street crossing Erica Burdon commented, "No one wants a Quiet Zone". This was a bit of a surprise as both she and her husband signed the Quiet Zone petition on 8/22/23. The current online petition started on August 22, and has collected almost 100 signatures within the past 15 days. The mentioned prior online petition (at completion) received a total of 135 signature. Not everyone is online; hence, other petition signing activities will be done to garner additional signatures showing support for a Quiet Zone.

I am not faulting Erica for her comments, but I'm at a loss to understand why such a comment was made.

I understand the ZBA does not make Quiet Zone decisions, the Select Board does, but it is good to have validity on discussed topics.

Regards,

Kathleen Cleary
